BLOOD DRAWING SET FOR KILN AT SATURDAY'S MEETING

The brotherhood of the Shifalo Memorial Baptist Church, Kiln, with its pastor, Rev. John Thompson and Brotherhood president, Joseph Cuevas, invited George Heitzmann, Chairman of the Hancock County Blood Bank, and Board Member Eugene Dillman to speak in behalf of the Blood Bank at a meeting held Saturday night at Kiln.

Heitzmann reported keen interest from the Organization in spearheading a drive in rural communities, more particularly in Beat 4, in securing donors and having a drawing at Kiln.

Recent publicity on the lack of rural donors for the bank resulted in the current interest.

In addition to Mr. Cuevas and Rev. Thompson there were several other Baptist Ministers and community leaders present at the meeting, representing outlying churches and groups, also interested in furthering the work of the County Blood Bank.

A tentative date for a blood drawing in Kiln was set for May 29, with Kiln High School selected as the location of a base of operation.

May 8, 1957 is the date scheduled for the drawing in Bay St. Louis, with the Youth Center the base of operation.

Heitzmann said the Board of the Bank was especially pleased as this is the first time any organization in a rural community has shown interest and the desire to cooperate in the work of the Blood Bank.

Progress in Atomic Energy

Mr. Scholz, chairman of the Southern Services, Inc., and a director of Mississippi Power Company, said that the United States is in a position in regard to the use of atomic energy which is "unparalleled in the history of the world." He pointed out that "because of the tremendous appeal to the popular imagination, it is but natural that atomic energy and its implications have become the subject of numerous extravagant predictions, fanciful rather than realistic."

The electric generating equipment used in a nuclear power plant is the same as that used in a conventional steam plant, the difference lies in the plant's boiler. Instead of burning coal or gas to produce heat, many atoms are split or "fissioned" in nuclear terminology the atomic "boiler" is called a reactor.

Mr. Scholz told the group that Mississippi Power Company with the other operating companies of The Southern Company is affiliated with Atomic Power Development Associates, Inc., a research group, and Power Reactor Development Company, which is presently constructing a development fast neutron breeder power reactor in Michigan. Thus, these companies are enjoying the results of the efforts of a 95 man research organization and the benefits of the operation experience of an atomic plant at only a small fraction of the cost. "This fact is of great importance to those interested in the progress made in the Southeast, for the progress is best measured, not in terms of activities carried on in the South-

Generator-stator for Mississippi Power Company's new 100,000 horsepower generating plant now under construction. This portion of the generator weighs 134 tons and had to be transported on special rail equipment.

Although recent rains have slowed down some phases of construction at Miss. Power Company's new Gulf Coast electric generating plant, a spokesman for the company says that the plant will be completed this summer. It was reported that much of the necessary equipment has already been installed. Completion of installation on major items of equipment such as the boiler, condenser and generator varies from 65 to 85 per cent.

Asbestos siding on the plant building is practically completed and work is progressing on the built up roof.

Two deep wells have been completed to supply water to the boilers. These wells were drilled to a depth of 860 feet and will provide clean, pure water for conversion to steam.

The intake canal, from the Biloxi river to the plant, which will supply cooling water for the condenser has been completed and is full of water. It is approximately one mile long, 100 feet wide and 12 feet deep. A large turning area has been provided which is 250 feet wide with the water in this area 16 feet deep. The canal may at some future date serve a dual purpose in that coal could be shipped to the plant by barge. However, at this time no coal handling facilities will be installed. A similar but shorter discharge canal has been completed.

Plans Being Raised For Fraternity House

Plans for a new chapter house, to be erected on the Mississippi State College campus, Alpha Fraternity, on Saturday, March 30, will take their fund-raising campaign to Jackson, where they are to see some 600 alumni-members at their annual meeting of business.

Billy Tom Ware of Brookhaven, president of the chapter, said that the group will meet Senator Mitchell Robinson in Jackson Friday afternoon and will work from a list prepared by Jackson alumni.

Meeting with fraternity members will be Boswell Stephens of Macon, president of the Mississippi Farm Bureau and chairman of the statewide fraternity campaign; J. C. Bridges, Winterville planter, district chairman, and Ray Canada, Edwards planter, chairman of Hinds and Warren counties.

Also to meet with the group are the following district chairmen: Leo Seal, Jr., Bay St. Louis; Bill Rhetf, Columbus; Jim Forbes, Ed Haddon, and Kenneth Allen, Meridian and Senator Robinson.

Fund-raising has been the main project of the fraternity this year, and hope was expressed by its president that construction could begin April 1, if sufficient money can be obtained. A number of hundred-dollar gifts have been received.

"Our present house is too small and is inadequate for the needs of our growing chapter. We need a nice place," Mr. Ware opined. "The local chapter boasts 40 active members and 20 pledges, while the present house has room to house only 16 members. The present house has already been sold, and the fraternity must find a new home by next fall."

The glances you direct at your neighbors, the hunt for a dropped glove, the search for the last kernel of popcorn, the wide and deep field of vision—all help to make movie watching in a theater less eye fatiguing than viewing television, the Murine Company reports. Watching TV converges the eyes steadily for a long period on a small, static area. It is wise occasionally to look away from the screen and not sit too near to your television set or at too much of an angle.

Questions are being asked about whether starched items can go into the clothes dryer. The answer is "Yes, you may dry your starched clothes and other articles in your dryer. But they should be dried as a separate load."

Since drying process cause some of the starch to be lost, you will need to use a heavier solution to get the clothes as stiff as you want them. You may need to use up to half again as much starch as you usually use.

A word of caution: Be particularly careful not to overdry starched items.

Those who have tested and studied this problem suggest that most articles be removed from the dryer when they feel just

At times it may be worth the price of credit to be able to use the purchase while paying for it. But do you know how much you are paying for credit buying? Interest rates vary, depending on the kind of credit and whether or not insurance costs and other fees are figured as part of the cost of credit. Do some checking and figuring and question-asking before you make an installment purchase. Consider all the facts, before you sign the contract.

Consider the cost of credit and weigh the values of using credit against this cost, before you decide how to buy. Buying on the installment plan always costs more than paying cash.

RESULTS OF DAIRY SURVEY REPORTED
Mississippi has 3998 grade A dairies in operation, according to a survey by the State Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. The Service said the purpose of the survey was to: (1) Provide the basic information necessary for a study of grade A milk production in Mississippi by the Department of Agricultural Economics, and (2) Establish a basis for developing a regular monthly statistical report on the grade A milk industry.

You can predict the shape of your child's eyes and length of its eyelashes. If one of the parents has large eyes, one of the children probably will have the same. Unless both parents have slanting eyes, their children's eyes are not likely to have this shape, although it is likely to appear in the next generation. If one parent has long lashes, there is a good possibility that the child also will have them.

STRAWBERRIES ARE PROFITABLE CROP
Farmers of Mississippi may be missing a good financial bet by not planting more strawberries and/or the giant bosenberry a sort of glorified tame blackberry. Last year Carlton Rutledge, of Copiah County planted two and one-half acres of strawberries he harvested $3,000 worth of the fruit and had all his family could eat and can or deep-freeze for winter use. He has one acre of the bosenberries which go like hotcakes at public sale and make the best "black berry" pie you ever tasted.

CONGRESSIONAL FUNDRAISING
by
COMMUNIST WILL BE DEPOSED
JOINT COMMITTEE ON THE BUDGET ANSWERS TO WHAT TO CUT AND HOW TO CUT
Over the past weeks we have spent some two or three hours a day working with other economically minded members of the House and in an earnest effort to find ways of cutting the near record budget submitted by the Executive Branch. In going over each appropriation bill item by item we have been impressed all over again with how handicapped the Congress is in evaluating the real and essential needs of the Executive agencies in carrying out their duties in distinguishing between the fat and the lean in their budgets. As a result of this experience, we are more convinced than ever that in past time for the Congress to revise its outmoded budgetary machinery.

In this age of all time high taxes and record peace time appropriations, our Appropriations Committees, responsible for spending the taxpayers' money, are substantially equipped for the job as they were 35 years ago, when the appropriations and taxes were nominal—under $5 billion.

Our Appropriations Committees in both the House and the Senate are at the mercy of the executive departments. They are forced, because of their limited knowledge of often highly specialized subject matter, to largely take the recommendations of the executive departments. This is no fault of the Appropriations Committees. It is due to the failure of Congress to provide them with the tools with which to work.

For instance, the President has a Budget Bureau with approximately 500 employees, all experts in their several fields. On the other hand, the Appropriations Committees have only a handful on their staffs. There is urgent need for these committees to be equipped with an adequate staff of experts. If this staff is wisely chosen, the committees will be in position to have equal knowledge with the President's Budget Bureau of the needs of the various departments. Then and not until then will the Congress be able to withstand and defeat unnecessary demands from the various bureaus for appropriations of the taxpayers' money. For, if the Appropriations Committee is at such a disadvantage, how helpless is the individual member of Congress when called upon on the one hand, or economy by many of his constituents while faced, on the other hand, with the insistence of the bureaus and the special or vested interests that disaster will surely follow if even one dollar of their request is cut.

For several years now Senator McClellan of Arkansas and I have General legislation that would first set up a joint committee on the budget from the Committee on Appropriations of the House and the Senate and second, create an adequate staff of experts for this joint committee. Twice in recent years the Senate has passed Senator McClellan's bill. In 1932 the House by a narrow margin of 16 votes rejected my bill. In the 1933 Congress the Senate unanimously passed this bill. On March 14 Senator McClellan, on behalf of himself and 61 other Senators, reintroduced members of the Senate as co-sponsors insures the passage of the bill by the Senate at this session. Oddly enough the principal opposition to my bill now as in the 82nd Congress comes from the House Appropriations Committee, which the legislation is designed primarily to help. Under the Constitution all appropriation and tax bills must originate in the House. They fear that this proposed joint committee would be dominated by the other body and thereby deprive them of their constitutional prerogatives. While I believe that this fear is unfounded, to meet with this argument I have stacked my bill in favor of the House, giving it 9 members against seven for the Senate and lodging the chairmanship permanently in the House.

Under the current pressure from back home to cut expenditures and thereby pave the way for a tax reduction later, the prospects for favorable action on the joint budget committee proposal are better than in many years. It is high time that Congress, which in the end must bear the responsibility for spending should provide itself the tools to prune the budget in a wise and sensible way.

NEW PULPWOOD YARD OPERATES AT MABEN
The Mabon Pulpwood Yard has been opened by International Paper Co., of Natchez, and is shipping 12 cars of pulpwood and expects to increase the business as more wood is available. Mabon was selected because of its particular location and in addition to the co-operation of citizens. The loading machine at the new yard can load a car of pulpwood in two hours that normally takes 4 or 5 men all day. The pulpwood sold through the Mabon yard is shipped to Natchez.

Even your best driving companion might cast a questioning look in your direction if you declared that your eyeballs were vibrating and your sight blurred. But even if your conscience is clear and your health good, such things can happen—at least when you're riding in a car. According to the Marine Company, your eyesight just isn't as keen as usual when you are riding in a car or bus. The vehicle's vibrations are transferred to the eyes, causing an imperceptible blur which helps create eye fatigue.

Candidates For a Progressive Administration

GEORGE E. HEITZMANN

JOSEPH H. BENVENUTI

RUSSELL J. ELLIOTT

These Are Our Pledges, Based On Sincerity, Integrity And Honesty

We offered our platform with the assurance that it will be carried out to the fullest extent. We will not attempt, in any way, to divert from the issues of our Platform, when elected. We will live up to our commitments in any improvement program which we pledge ourselves, and we will disburse the funds as earmarked and pledged the Public, especially and more particularly so, when the Citizens voice their opinions by vote such as expressed by the People in the City Sales Tax Election.

SCHOOL SYSTEM AND YOUTH PROGRAM

Undoubtedly the School System and Youth Programs are of utmost importance to the future of our community and welfare of our children. Realizing, as City Fathers, these vital projects will be entrusted to us, we have personally inspected the present facilities. We observed that, though fairly well equipped, there are still many improvements necessary, particularly at the Valena C. Jones School. We are aware of the lack of these facilities and will correct the existing conditions which are too many to enumerate in this issue.

The basis of our Youth Program is to incorporate into the school children the importance of Government and to carry out through the Youth a program of Student Council and duties of a Student Administration which, by instilling at an early age the necessity of Leadership and Civic responsibility, will bring about all the qualities of Americanism, Democracy and Righteousness. When our Youth are convinced of these facts they will naturally be ready for the rightful position they will attain upon maturity and the correct path to follow, as children, in order to prepare for good and useful citizens of the future.

Through the necessity of brevity the above is but a basis of our proposed program, as it is our understanding at present there is no definite program outlined for the assistance and promotion of our children.

We will strongly support our PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEMS AND OUR PRIVATE EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES.

FIRE PROTECTION PROGRAM

We have further pledged in our platform an increased and better Fire Protection Program for ALL OF THE PEOPLE, and having received so many favorable reports supporting this issue we feel it necessary to further stress upon the need for such an expansion. The City presently owns two Fire Engines now located in ONE AREA of our City with ONLY ONE FIREMAN ON DUTY—ONE FIREMAN TO TWO ENGINES. We advocate and will strongly support the establishing of an additional Fire Station that will afford the maximum security we so sorely need and put to use the equipment that has been nothing but a mere display in our ONLY FIRE STATION.

We pledge ourselves to locate this new station in an area where it will serve the people advantageously. With the location of an additional Fire Station the entire City can be serviced without INTERRUPTION on a moment's notice, FREE OF ANY ROAD BLOCKS BY TRAINS OR OTHERWISE.

An improved Fire Protection Program will undoubtedly play a major role in obtaining lower Fire Insurance Rates for ALL OF THE PEOPLE.

WE WILL HUMBLY SERVE YOU FOR A BETTER AND PROGRESSIVE COMMUNITY. WE WILL BE YOUR PERSONAL, UNBIASED REPRESENTATIVES AND WILL RESPECT THE PARTIALITY.

Mississippi's Easter Seal Child, Paul Henry Marks of Tchula, is typical of the many handicapped children who benefit from the Easter Seal Campaign. Paul is a seasoned camper, is eagerly looking forward to again attending "Ilan dicamp." Your contributions to Easter Seal make these summer camps possible.

The goal for the 1957 Easter Seal campaign for funds has been set at $100,000 according to Carroll Gartin, campaign manager.

This money is vitally needed to help the 125,000 handicapped people in the state.

Funds to support the Mississippi Society for Crippled Children and Adults and affiliated County Chapters, which offer summer camps for the handicapped, speech clinics, and speech and physical therapy, is raised each year through a mail campaign.

Within the next few weeks every home in Mississippi will receive a letter explaining the services of the Society and enclosing Easter Seals.

"Easter Seals mean services," said Gartin. "I urge everyone in the state to support the campaign."

Today Mississippi has almost 15,000 children with orthopedic conditions. Easter Seals will provide therapy by trained, qualified teachers," he continued.

"Another 69,000 children in Mississippi cannot make themselves understood because of cleft palates, lisping, stuttering or other speech problems. Easter Seals will provide speech therapy and summer clinics to overcome such impediments," Gartin said.

Donations to the annual appeal make summer camps possible. At the camps handicapped children learn to swim, learn crafts and enter into comradeship not found with normal children.

At present the Hancock County Society for Crippled Children and Adults is able to help only a small fraction of these handicapped people. Through generous contributions during the annual Easter Seal appeal extended services to these handicapped may be provided.

"Through donations made during the Easter Seal drive Mississippi's handicapped can be given a new start in life," Gartin said.

LEGIONNAIRES HAVE PARTY ON 38TH ANNIVERSARY

The American Legion Auxiliary acted as hostess to their Legionnaires in honor of their 38th Birthday anniversary last week.

Mrs. G. C. Romanoff, Unit President, introduced Mrs. Claiborne J. Ladner, 9th District Vice-President; Mrs. Lucien Kidd, 9th District Commander; Mrs. Roger Reinike, and Mr. Roger Reinike, new commander of the Legion Post.

Commander Reinike addressed the group and announced the grand opening of the new addition will take place this month. Visitors, new members and past officers were recognized. Mrs. Russell Elliott, past district and unit president, Mr. John Rutherford, past post and district commander, Mr. Russell Elliott, Mr. Sidney Bourgeois, past commanders, Mr. Fred Fayard, past commander.

DR. OSCHNER IS GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. Oschner of the Oschner Clinic in New Orleans, La. was guest speaker at a banquet in Biloxi at the Buena Vista Hotel recently to open the 1957 Cancer Crusade at Biloxi.

Those attending from here were Dr. Ship, Hancock County Health Officer, American Legion Auxiliary members were Mrs. Esther Oschmann, General Chairman of Hancock County Cancer Fund Campaign; Mrs. Russell Elliott, Auxiliary State Community Service chairman; Mrs. Lucas Fuchey and Mrs. Rene Bernhardt.

Tests have shown bitter weeds can be controlled in summer pastures by spraying before cotton comes up. Cotton growing on the same farm where pastures should be sprayed for bitter weeds in the summer has caused the program to be a little slow. The best advice offered is "spray before cotton is planted." There is still plenty of time to do this before cotton comes up and it is believed most bitter weeds will be controlled by early spraying. If you do bitter weed spraying and summer pasture spraying and don't use extra precautions or do early spraying, weed control program

American Legion AUXILIARY NOTES

The American Legion Auxiliary, as a fund raising project, is offering a Toast-Master Fry Pan to the public and auxiliary members.

The drawing will be held at the American Legion Open House Saturday April 27.

To the public and members unfamiliar with the Auxiliary Program, our projects are many and certainly worth-while. Our Girl State program, now underway, provides training in the functional aspects of citizenship. To send our quota of 7 girls will cost $304.00. Our work with the hospitalized Veterans to provide companionship and entertainment. The Auxiliary Gift Shop Christmas Program at the three Veterans Hospitals in Mississippi, provides free gifts for each veteran to send his family (our quota last year 305 gifts valued at $1.00 each). The help given needy families in the county. The donations to each of the National Fund Campaigns for better health be accomplished.

These instances are just a few of the projects the American Legion Auxiliary works with and for.

Our membership fee goes to State and National Headquarters for their work on a national level which leaves the Bay St. Louis Unit "scrapping the barrel" for funds to carry on our work. The Fry Pan is practical, useful and lovely and it is the hope of the Auxiliary that the members and general public will be generous in their donations to enlarge the Auxiliary treasury and the scope of their work.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

BY HOWARD F. SIMMONS
Hancock County Agent

HOG PRODUCTION

Want to be successful in hog production? If you do, here is a list that may help you to it.

First plan to get in and stay in—the "inner and outer" does not make money. Usually such a producer buys in while hog prices are high and sells out when they are low. This is just not good economic.

Locate your buildings, equipment and pastures conveniently. Make use of farrowing stalls for sows. Get set up right in the beginning.

Supply pastures especially for bred sows and for sows with suckling litters. Do not get bred sows too fat as this results in short litters, unthrifty pigs and sows are poor milkers. Pastures supply vitamins, minerals, protein and much needed exercise. They help cut feed costs, resulting in cheaper pigs and more profit.

Grow meat type hogs. The consumer is demanding lean meat and less fat. Hog producers must produce what the consumer wants. Meat type hogs, found in practically all breeds, make more economical gains than the fat kind. The fastest way to get on a meat type hog program is to get a good meaty boar and breed the meat characteristics into your pigs. Your county agent can help you get started in the right direction. See him for more information.

TOMATO PLANTS

All tomato plant growers who plan to sell or ship tomato plants this year must have them inspected by the State Plant Board before they can be sold.

Growers may apply to the nearest Plant Board inspector for the inspections or they may write to the Plant Board at State College.

Growers whose plants are found to be free of injurious pests are required to use a tomato plant permit on each package of plants shipped by parcel post or excess plants sold at the plant bed do not require a permit, but if offered for sale in stores, a permit must be attached to the container.

Tomato plants grown in other states cannot be legally sold in Mississippi. The State Plant Board prohibits such sales to protect the Mississippi tomato industry from late blight, a serious plant disease that has in the past entered this state from out of state.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Griffith will sail on April 30 for a visit to Europe, principally visiting in Scotland, England and Italy. They will be absent about two months.

Children receiving the vaccine at that time still maintain a high immunity, how long this immunity will last only time will tell. It is now 15 months or two years. We now hope and believe it will last as long as five years.

In vaccinating a large group we cannot obtain 100% in proper spacing. Some children will get the first dose and the parent will bring them back for the second dose with a lapse of a year or more in spacing when it should have been 6 weeks. Of course, the last or third shot is given 7 or 8 months after the second shot as a kind of booster injection to prolong the immunity. Our success in administering the vaccine in the age group from 6 months to 10 years is fairly good. But with the teenage group we have not made a respectable showing. Whether this has been due to the attitude of the parent or the teenager we do not know. But we do know this. Not a single case of paralytic polio has developed in a single child in our state where three shots have been properly administered. It seems, it does not matter how desperately we wish and desire a thing. As soon as that thing has been made available we seem to lose interest.

We have plenty of vaccine available but it will do no good stored in the refrigerator.

Now we have another problem. We have many, many calls for vaccine for the people in the upper age group of 40 years and below. When it will become available we cannot say. But when it is released you may be assured that your Health Department will give it to this group. Now if this group react as the teenagers are now doing they will not universally take it.

If cases of polio develop in this county, it will not be due to a lack of vaccine nor the unwillingness of your Health Department to administer it but if cases do develop it will be due to the indifference and procrastination of both the children and the parents of the family.

It will be fine if the general public everywhere would become concerned in the suppression of this accursed and crippling disease and help your Health Department make this program a complete success by stamping out polio.

WAVELAND

GEORGETTE B. HALL

Friday of last week marked the date of the closing message given by the Rev. Cook who was in charge of the week long revival given at the Main Street Methodist Church. This service was well attended by Methodist Church members from Waveland. Mrs. Ruth Ketchum substituted for the regular organist, and grateful thanks is extended to her for her fine service. Mr. Marcel L. Nasa was in charge of the music and singing and is to be commended upon the fine work that he accomplished during the week. The Rev. A. M. Ellison was also in attendance at all meetings. These messages were wonderful and inspiring during this Lenten season.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Doussan, Sr. and Mrs. Leonard Doussan and sons, and Mr. Doussan's sister, all of New Orleans, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brockman.

The "Get Together Club" met Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Ruth Ketchum in Waveland. Wiener, chili, cold drinks, coffee and cake were served and enjoyed by the twenty-three guests who spent a delightful evening in friendly fellowship. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Reab on Burnette Street in Cedar Point.

Miss Lynne Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hall, and Miss Paula Kimbrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Kimbrell, were among several girls in Mrs. Juanita Erwin's Home Economics Class who modeled skirts, suits, dresses and blouses which they just finished in the sewing class.

The girls discussed the many things they have learned in this work during the year. The girls were featured on the program along with Expression and Declaration students who will represent Bay High at Pascagoula, Miss., this Saturday. Students were introduced by Mrs. Erwin who was in charge of the program.

The program was part of the April meeting of the Bay Central PTA, held in the school's auditorium Tuesday evening.

Sympathy from the entire community is extended to the family relatives and friends of the Glover family at Bay St. Louis upon the passing last week of Mr. Glover's father, Mr. Cyril Glover, Sr. Funeral services were conducted from Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, followed by ceremonies in New Orleans where the deceased was buried.

This Sunday is Palm Sunday. Go to the church of your choice and take your family and loved ones with you.

NEWS FROM BAY HIGH—

TIGER TALES

Bay High will hold its Career Day on April 18th. The feature speaker for the opening of this program will be Mr. Floyd Barnes, Executive Secretary of the Mississippi Educational Assn.

We will have approximately eight groups of students that will attend special sessions according to their selections. This includes a speaker in Business Education, Nursing, Cosmetology, Engineering, Homemaking and some branch of Military Service. These speakers will be here to discuss their different fields as a vocational pursuit.

This year we are inviting the senior classes from the four public high schools in the county to be with us on this day.

Hancock County Schools were well represented Friday, April 5, when fifty four girls who were winners in Community Attainment Day held in their respective schools two weeks ago, met at the Agricultural Center to judge clothing, foods, food preservation, yard beautification, and personality improvement. Mrs. Ida Garaway Nance, County Home Demonstration Agent, was in charge of the judging.

Winners from Bay High were Mary Henderson, sophomore, who won first place for her judging of foods, and Catherine Alliston, sophomore, who won first place for her judging of clothing. These two girls will go to Mississippi State College in July to attend the Mississippi A-H Congress, where they will compete with other county winners. Clara Kay Miller and Donald Byrd, juniors, will also attend Club Congress and will participate in public speaking.

The regular monthly meeting of the A-H Club was held in the school's auditorium Monday evening, April 8. Mrs. Nance was in charge. She gave an interesting talk on "Accessories For Your Costume."

Members began this meeting with a devotion and ended it with the A-H Club pledge. It was announced that "The Treblers," singing group composed of Sylvia Templin, Carol Johnson, and Carol Johnson, and a dancing group, Penny Sue Webb, Donna Wiggins, and Nita Kay Erwin, will go to Hattiesburg during the month of April to compete in the district talent contest.

LIVE OAK BRANCH

Dr. John D. Husband, Professor of Journalism at Tulane University, will open the session with a talk on "A Place for Poetry." During the afternoon Mr. Ivan Dmitri, Staff Photographer of The Saturday Evening Post, New York, will conduct a period in which he will speak on "Color Photography in Photo Journalism."

A banquet at the hotel will complete the day with Rose Marie Clark, of Clarksdale, Miss., as toastmistress. Mrs. Clark is State President of the N. L. O. A. P. An address by Katherine Ann Porter, famous novelist of Southbury, Conn., will close the session for the day.

On Saturday, April 27, Hodding Carter of Greenville, Miss., who is Editor of The Delta Democrat Times will address the group, having as his subject, "Articles For The National Market." Mr. Carter is well known throughout Mississippi.

A "How To" panel will conclude the program with all speakers entering the discussion. The panel will consist of ideas on interviews, query letters, markets and copyrights, and will be of especial interest to the aspiring writer.

Mrs. Lloyd Griffith, President of the Live Oak Branch wishes to announce that the conference is open to the public. She urges that every interested writer as well as the journalistic student enroll for the 3 day conference. Information may be procured from her or by calling Vicki Hill at 728. Those wishing to remain in Biloxi for the three day period will be responsible for their own accommodations.

Can't give you much on fishing this week. The weather is still unsettled and bad for most kind of fishing. Maybe after this month things will get back to normal.

Our friend Vic Fouert has joined the fly fishing group. Vic bought a new fly rod and every thing.

O. S. Redder of Forrest, Miss., visited relatives at Fenton, this week end and enjoyed a round of golf with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Conforto of New Orleans, visited Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Trasher in Waveland over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Conforto are managers of Herbie Rodrigue's New Orleans fighter.

Herbie and Mrs. Rodrigue of New Orleans spent the weekend in Waveland with friends. Herbie a New Orleans fighter is training for his next bout on April 15.

Justin C. Hamrick, keeper of Sportsman Lake, reported catching a few fish last week. Both he and the Missus are ardent fishermen and enjoy other sports.

Local fight fans returning Monday night after attending the Dupas-Martinez fight were high in their praises of Ralph, after his unanimous defeat of Martinez. These fans never miss a Dupas fight in New Orleans.

Bill Pitts was out after some fish Sunday, but returned home empty handed. Better luck next time, Bill.

Ed Fayard of Waveland, maker of the famous "Fayard" fly and casting baits was a judge Sunday at the fly, spinning rod and casting contest held in New Orleans on that day.

We forgot to mention last week that David McDonald will defend his Class C title in the Pass Isles Golf Club play-off.

C. C. McDonald, Sr., and Sidney Prague returned Friday from the NOCC Golf Tournament where they had a great time.
